Verse 1

I saw the endless Universe in your eyes
I sang the melody of my love to the beat of your heart
We shared a special place, in each others' arms
The world was ours, even time stopped for us

Chorus:

You had a change of heart
Your lying eyes could not deceive me
But I would deny it to myself so many times
Cause the pain of the truth was devastating

Verse 2

But storms grew stronger, pouring ruthlessly
Winds tore apart the bond we had
No ray of sunshine could squeeze in
Into the darkness of the evil sin
