Oh, babe...
What can I say to you now
If you don't listen.
You are the one who knows everything
You are right always right babe.
You gonna change somebody's world
You know the only way.
I wanna go you wanna stay and row
Your noble cause is to be the best.

I want you to stop to bore right now!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.
I've seen, I've heard, I've had enough!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.

Oh, babe...
What can I say to you know
To dispel your illusions.
I'm not the one who needs a guide
You are not a right one.
You wanna change somebody's world
And there is nothing to weigh.
I wonder how somebody can trust in you
Too little sense but too much tinsel.

I want you to stop to bore right now!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.
I've seen, I've heard, I've had enough!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.
I want you to stop to bore right now!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.
I've seen, I've heard, I've had enough!
We don't trust Porno Stars
We don't trust.
No more.
