"My Home"

I've been looking for something all my life
Always short of one thing to make it right
All the time I kept a foot outside the door
Always haunted by a drive for so much more
Never satisfied enough to let it go

But now that I have found you

Refrain:

The feeling I get when I'm around you
I've no place left to go
And I didn't see until I found you
That love could make me grow
Now I know
Wherever you want to is where I'll call my home

No I never gave enough to get attached
And I never knew exactly what I lacked
Making sure to always leave an easy out
Every yes was always tainted with a doubt
Never thought I'd learn what love was all about

But now that I found you

Refrain:

The feeling I get when I'm around you
And I didn't see until I found you
That love could make me grow
Now I know
Wherever you want to is where I'll call my home

I never cared too much
Was always on the go
Living with a sense of hesitation
You healed me with your touch
It's there and now I know my destination

Refrain:

The feeling I get when I'm around you

And I didn't see until I found you
That love could make me grow
Now I know
Wherever you want to is where I'll call my home
