I'm out of love
My heart is closed
It stays alive
By chasing a ghost

All of the times
I held you close to me
What if I'd known
How short it would be
All the love that you left behind
Keeps on livin'
Inside my mind

Refrain:

Baby, I guess it's time to let you go
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
Left undone but now instead
(The) Time has come to let you go

Another year
Another start
I'm not alone
Still lonely at heart
As time goes by

I'm sure I'll find a way
To keep the tears
A heartbeat away
All the questions you left behind
Keeps repeating inside my mind

Refrain:

Baby, I guess it's time to let you go
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
(The) Time has come to let you go

I'm not afraid to let you go
But the thought that I might forget

Oh baby
The things that made me love you so
Your smile, your tears
That's what I fear
Oh...

Refrain:

Baby, I guess it's time to let you go
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
(The) Time has come to let you go

Refrain:

Baby, I guess it's time to let you go
Though deep inside this feeling grows
That so much was left unsaid
(The) Time has come to let you go

There's so much that was left unsaid
(The) Time has come to let you go
