"Self-Esteem"

Always them fashion clothes spent hours in front of the mirror making dates with your female friends bracelets and diamonds around your hands

But when you dig a bit deeper, start a little conversation look a little bit closer, then I can see that there's nothing behind this beautiful shelter you want everyone to see

Ref:

Girls! Why can't you show me some self-esteem?
you're so awkward, insecure, why don't you challenge me more?

Girls! Why can't you show me some self-esteem?
I'm so sick and tired of meeting these insecure girls that I meet

Come on and say chomchomchom (x4)

For me it would be really nice if you could put wenga in your life it will increase your life quality and you future possibilities because, when you feel awkward, I feel that it's awkward everything is just awkward, awkward and I won't go around feeling this guilt because someone feels weird around me
