"Demon Girl"

You were born, to be a bad demon girl.
And you were grown up in a bad demon world.
With a heart there was cold as ice.
And you never apologized for your lies.

Alright

You have no heart, but I have seen the sun for the first time.
I know you're a demon girl, and I just want you to be mine.
I know you're a demon girl, and I just want you to be mine.

I know you're evil but I can't deny.
I gave you flowers made out of skulls and bloody sky.
No one likes you, because you're a demon bitch.
Well I just want you thats my only wish.

You have no heart, but I have seen the sun for the first
time.
I know you're a demon girl, and I just want you to be
mine.
I know you're a demon girl, and I just want you to be
mine.
(You were born to be a bad demon girl)
