happy day again today i died with you again today the sun will burn again today you and i will drown my friend today is here again today and you will kill me again today i will kill you again today is here again today happy day

i was not waving
i was drowning
i laugh when i think of it you laugh as i cry
I smile as you pull me under you cry as i drown from the shore i can feel you pull me under while i pull you

i'm happy and why not?
i've had days like this
