I wear my heart on my sleeve
Don't act like that's a disease
Need y'all to bear with me please
I just say what I see
We're all just chasing a dream in the land of the free While we're paying a fee to stay on this concrete

Well, I don't know the price of your roof
But the first of the month we all pay our dues
When the rain falls it don't rain on a few
When the sun shine it don't shine just on you
I don't know the monsters you knew
But I'm trying to forget the ones I met too
Baby, you could help me
Baby, I could help you

[Chorus]

You look at me and you see what I see
Because you're looking in the mirror
When you're with me there's no use in hiding
Because you're looking in the mirror
Baby, baby, baby don't look away
Because you're looking in the mirror
'Cause maybe maybe maybe we're just the same
Because you're looking in the mirror

We're all crossing paths for a reason I know that Hoping just to share some laughs and avoid the broken glass
Have I met you in the past?
In a life that I lived last
You know they go too fast

God knows they go to fast

[Chorus]

It's the same pain
And when I wake
I hear the same wave of sirens coming down my way
And I'll never try to leave you Baby you're the one I cling to
Baby don't look away
Baby don't look away

I am you

[Chorus]
