early morning
early day
early morning
my honey done gone away damn my head's pounding fierce and i don't which one is worse yeah i got brains and i got brawns but not enough of either one to wanna go on

early morning
early day
early morning
my honey done gone away

and i got fears i'm afraid of you gonna dissappear like all them do and i got wheels and i got pills and if you don't kill me nothing will

early morning
early day
early morning
my honey done gone away

kick my head and curse my name and burn this town still be the same i had hope now i got none well i've given up
i'm serious
i'm out of here
i'm done

early morning
early day
early morning
my honey done gone away
yeah, my honey done gone away
