This time is special for you
I don't think you ever fell for someone like I do
Every now and then I think of you
But this time is time for rock on

Hey, do you remember the time I took you after class?
I think you were going to find something special of me
But then when you turned around you broke my heart
like a glass
I think you should never be like that to someone like me

This time I will let you down
This time I will never give you to
This time I will set you free
And only tonight you will be mine

Every now and then I think about you
And this pain is making me feel so
Alive is the word but I think better off Without you I would be

I damn you my sweet blue eye darlin'
I couldn't stop sinking for you
Even if you never let me be
The man you wanted to see

My sweet blue eye darlin'
My sweet blue eye darlin'
My sweet blue eye darlin'
My sweet blue eye darlin'
My sweet blue eye darlin'
