Packing up speakers, winding up cables, 22 nights in June, I really hope September gets here soon

Sending out emails, scribbling down lyrics, trying to keep up with you, 90 more days and this crazy summer's through

Screaming fans who want to hear my music
Making millions, I hope I don't lose it

And I can't wait for the winter heat in Georgia
I hope we find a way to eat in Georgia
Pushing through 'til the day we meet in Georgia

Coming home late, I just can't wait to crawl into bed tonight. Restless and sore, I drift into the morning light Afternoon wakeup, shower and shape up. Doing it all again. Trying to find time for you every now and then

Screaming fans who want to hear my music
Making millions, I hope I don't lose it

And I can't wait for the winter heat in Georgia
I hope we find a way to eat in Georgia
Pushing through 'til the day we meet in Georgia

{INST.}

And I can't wait for the winter heat in Georgia
I hope we find a way to eat in Georgia
Pushing through 'til the day we meet in Georgia
