You won't wait a long time,
we will join you soon
It's a fateful crime
But it's the same for everyone
We live our life and then we go

(I) know you were suffering
Watching us a last time
Emotional torture
But it's the same for everyone
We live our life and then we go

Yes he was a good man,
He was the best among us
But God choose him to be back to his home

Everyone's already lost someone...

How many friends, relatives and loves
Have we lost

Will it take end, will we be able to stop,
This endless pain

But no one is prepared
To live something
Like the suicide

Of a 21 years old friend
Who lived his life in pain
And went before his end

Now that you are gone
Lifeless as a stone
We have learned something,
That life it's the same for everyone
We live our life,
and then we go

But we can't accept
To stay without you!
A common wish to die

but it's the same for everyone
You've left our life
(But) they have to go on.
