Hey there baby
Do you wanna get real with me
How much do you really wanna know
How much do you wanna see
I'm through covering up
I can't do that again
I wanna know that I'm loved for who I really am

I ain't perfect, aint ever gonna be
A little bit broken looks pretty good on me
I ain't got nothing to hide, got nothing to prove
Yeah, I'm just a pretty mess, maybe
But that's just the way God made me

Hey there baby, do you wanna play some truth or dare
Show me the road map of your scars
I bet I've been there
The right one, the wrong time, the right time, the wrong place
Well maybe in the end there really are no mistakes

I ain't perfect, aint ever gonna be
A little bit broken looks pretty good on me
I ain't got nothing to hide, got nothing to prove
Yeah, I'm just a pretty mess, maybe
But that's just the way God made me
I ain't perfect, aint ever gonna be
A little bit broken looks pretty good on me
I ain't got nothing to hide, got nothing to prove
Yeah, I'm just a pretty mess, maybe
But that's just the way God made me
