Ahhhhahahhhah
I'm caught between a rock
and a hard place.
It's not about what we've got.
It's more that I have changed.
Situations more than complicated
With or without space.

(pre-Chorus)
It hurt to hurt ourselves.
It seems that we change like the seasons.
I can't stay where we are.
But I wish that things could be different.

(Chorus)
It ain't easy that my heart feels this way.
I try to change it but in time it feels the same.
Keep on lying to the pain in my head.
I feel I need to start again.

Ohohhhohhhohhhohoh
If I leave you you'll be fine
but I don't know about me.
I just need some time.
I try and hold it in
when I look in your eyes
but I know I'm crumbling.

(pre-Chorus)
It hurts to hurt you here.
I hate that I change like the seasons.
You can't stay where we are
But I pray that things would be different.

(Chorus)
It ain't easy that my heart feels this way.
I try to change it but in time it feels the same.
Keep on lying to the pain in my head.
I feel that we should start again.
Ohohhhohhhohhhohhhohoh, start again.
