He counts the stars one and all
He knows how much sand is on the shore
He sees every sparrow that falls
He made the mountain and the seas
He's in control of everything
Of all creatures great and small

CHORUS

He knows my name
Every step that I take
Every move that I make
Every tear that I cry
And He knows my name
When I'm overwhelmed by the pain
And can't see the light of day
I know ill be just fine
Cause He knows my name

I don't know what tommorrow will bring
I can't tell you what's in store
I don't know a lot of things
I don't have all the answers to the quetions of life
But I know in whom I believe

CHORUS

He knew who I was when he carried the cross
He knew that I would fail him but he took the loss

CHORUS

Every step that I make
Every move that I make
Evety tear that I cry
And hr knows my name
