I wish they would arrest you for the way you stole my heart

But I'm the one who's doing time now that we're apart

You came to me with a heart that true
And said I could believe in you
But then you changed your line, you see
And tried to put these chains on me

You think hearts are made for breaking
And love is for the taking
But though it's wrong to be with you
I come back every time, oh baby
I can't help myself returning to the scene of the crime

There should be a law that says lying is a crime
The nights you said you loved me, were you just making time?
I can't help the way I feel
The love inside for you is real
If only I could make you see
I'm not the girl you want me to be

You think hearts are made for breaking
And love is for the taking
But though it's wrong to be with you
I come back every time, oh baby
I can't help myself returning to the scene of the crime

There's a storm outside, the lights are gone and I'm alone
I close my eyes and see your face, reach for the phone
Remember how it used to be when we were each other's destiny?
My head says I should let you go
But my heart will never - just say no

You think hearts are made for breaking
And love is for the taking
But though it's wrong to be with you

I come back every time, oh baby
I can't help myself returning to the scene of the crime
I can't help myself returning to the scene of the crime
