Harmony always, when I look around me

And your smile I see

I can feel it surround me

A miracle I find in your company

One glance is all that I need

What I was searching for I've found

Can you believe it, I'm walking on water

And I'm high off the ground

Must be some mystique that weaves it

I'd never have thought of this power I've found

One glance is all that I need

What I was searching for I've found it

One look and now I believe

I could just wrap my wholeself around it

Holy, to me just one glance is holy

One touch of your heart, to me that's holy

Holy, to me just one glance is holy

One touch of your heart, to me that's holy

You've seen it walking on water

Miracles like you've never seen before.

You've seen it walking on water

Miracles like you've never seen before.

Holy, to me just one glance is holy

One touch of your heart, to me that's holy

Holy, to me just one glance is holy

One touch of your heart, to me that's holy
