Do you hide from the way you feel inside?
Do you rage?
Can you turn the page in time?

If it's on your mind it's real

Do you take the thrown away?
Try to find a place to stay sometimes?
Thought I'd try it for a while
Justify the only reasons why I try

Too late tonight
Too tired to fight with you
'cause it's off and on
Just another song
I don't want to hear no more

Do you fight what you know is right sometimes?
Do you find any peace of mind sometimes?

If it's on your mind it's real
