I been waiting at this frontier

And it seems like a hundred years

But I couldn't see past the gate

I couldn't see past the hate

Now I'm coming back to my senses

I can see a light past the fences

Standing at the borderline

I've come to the end of the line

Will-power, give me some to survive

One more hour and I'm coming alive

I can see the light

And there's blue sky breaking

Through the edge of the night

I can see the light

Oh, I can see the light
The most precious thing I possess
Is knowing the answers yes
And soon my liberty
Will be reality
I've been given a second chance
I could open my arms and dance
Open that barricade
No longer I'm living afraid
Will-power, give me some to survive
One more hour and I'm coming alive
I can see the light
And there's blue sky breaking
Through the edge of the night
I can see the light
Oh, I can see the light
Now I climb the steps to freedom
The open gates I can see them
Hands I once knew
Beckoning me through
As the sunlight touch my face
I can feel the warm embrace
Arms surround me
My life has found me
Will-power, give me some to survive
One more hour and I'm coming alive

I can see the light
