Im the last hope do it it cos I can't cope fucking weird obsession gonna leave me with my heart broke, plus last night there's three cars at my house dont know what theyre plannin sittin with the lights out I'm inside with a weapon by the front door I could start a war n get em killed now with one call I can't Â be fucked though drama at another plan and for all I know these people parked could be a bunch of fans Does my fuckin head in give me fucking space explaining to my girl yeah we got to get another place take a big breath that's for certain this your dream Scott now was it worth it I'm stressed out I got an album to make I got a tour to do now the hours won't wait I swear to god I pictured it so different if I made it you think I give a fuck if people there are hatin brusÂ

I gotta make it out, or move quicklyÂ Can't allow the past to restrict meÂ Bet this time around they won't skip meÂ I am the last hopeÂ Won't hesitate not even for a secondÂ
The hustle has become an obsessionÂ I'm on the frontlines with my weaponÂ I am the last hope

call it what you will rumors fly round all these stories make me laugh as I lie down I'm a target for these people damage my name he's a crackhead flipping out with a fried brain you gotta be kiddin if the rock was my addiction would I be in this position I didn't think so I'm success I do it properly but I struggle with the fuckin stress I ain't touched a pipe in a fucking long time never will again go and listen to some songs of mine you think you know me right and the flow is tight n overnight they think it happened Jesus Christ this rapping took like half my life so take a seat back let me roll this big spliff on the beach with a cup of something mixed shit feeling faded as and maybe that's what makes me rap the way ido I'm living of the fact that people play my tracks man

I gotta make it out, or move quickly Can't allow the past to restrict me Bet this time around they won't skip me I am the last hope (The Champ!) Won't hesitate not even for a second The hustle has become an obsession I'm on the frontlines with my weapon
I am the last hope
