Oldfield

I need some time to look upon another shore
It's exploring I must do alone
We share a life strong enough and we'll endure
I just need to leave so I can grow
We've got to stand tall
And know our love is safe
And trust we can't fall
If love is sound
I'm leaving, so long now
Fare thee well till I come back
May our love be one to last
I'm leaving, be strong now
I just need a little time
Room enough to find my way
Love will provide, help us through those endless trials
Leaving doesn't mean there's nothing more
It's just a while, I'm asking for a lot this time
But part of love is learning to let go
We've got to stand tall
And know our love is safe
And trust we can't fall
If love is sound
I'm leaving, so long now
Fare thee well till I come back
May our love be one to last
I'm leaving, be strong now
I just need a little time
Room enough to find my way
I'm leaving
I'm leaving
I'm leaving, so long now
Fare thee well till I come back
May our love be one to last
I'm leaving, be strong now
I just need a little time
Room enough to find my way
I'm leaving, so long now
Fare thee well till I come back
May our love be one to last
I'm leaving, be strong now
I just need a little time

Room enough to find my way
I'm leaving, so long now
