Its always one day, that goes by..
and i never will let it go Each time i think of it.. its the thought of you and i.. so far apart..
and i cant do a single thing Its like we were doomed right from the start and my insides are tearing me apart I hope that one day ahead i can let it go of this sickening feeling that always seems to grow.

Your all thats on my mind
I'm feeling like i train wreck, a train wreck
and im wondering where to go
Looking for the answers the answers

Each time i see your face up inside my head..
Ill always never forget the times that we were close But noone will ever know just exactly how it felt together You and i just like one of a kind

Your all thats on my mind
I'm feeling like i train wreck, a train wreck
and im wondering where to go
Looking for the answers the answers

Your all thats on my mind,
yeah your all thats on my mind

Your all thats on my mind
I'm feeling like i train wreck, a train wreck
and im wondering where to go
