Old flame, it's always the old way
When did it get so damn cold
You're so seasonal
We flickered and swayed
Each time the winter soul came
I remember gold days
Under love's warm haze

Old flame, you're still the one that holds me
Can't you feel it burning
Can't you feel it burning still
Old flame, I fell for your inferno
Where did all the love go
Can't you feel the wind blow you closer to me

I went by your house today
When did you get so hollow
So closed, so overgrown
But I flicker and sway
Still dancing on the aftertaste
I remember gold days
Wrapped up in the warmth we made

Old flame, you're still the one that holds me
Can you feel it burning
Can you feel it burning still
Old flame, I fell for your inferno
Where did all the love go
Can't you feel the wind blow

Smoke skies, colors and cloud nines
Circles and straight lines and drowned eyes
(When there's something in the air)
From such heights, I fell into Fahrenheit
And time only fuels the desire
(When there's something in the air)

It's always the old way
When did it get so damn cold
You're so seasonal

Old flame, burning

Burning, burning still
Old flame, inferno
Where did all the love go

Someone's been sleeping downstairs
Someone's been sleeping downstairs
