Friday night getting done up
You say you wanna look just like a china doll
I answer that you do from the hall
My patience was waning, half moon, now I'm lit up waxing poetic

in the bathroom
I say that apart from lust
The secret to love is secrets plus trust

She says I got a smart tongue
I said in more ways than one
You're rolling your eyes but you wondering Come on, come on, come on, come on

Come on give me something that I can believe in
Got those bedroom eyes in the living room
And we're pulling all the blinds in the afternoon
All I wanted was to be somebody someone could believe in
But I'm a grapevine valentine
I'm the catch in your throat when you wanna cry
When all I really wanna do is catch you smile

Smile, yeah

This girl's got those smoky eyes on a clear night
Lipstick on just right
We could take a drive feel alive in the dying light My patience was feigning who knew indifference would get me

where I wanted to go
I could give you such a rush
The secret to love is blush blush blush

There's no room for rumors
I'll silence them, yeah you can be sure
You should believe all the things you heard
Cause now I got you at a loss for (words)

Come on give me something that I can believe in

Got those bedroom eyes in the living room
And we're pulling all the blinds in the afternoon
All I wanted was to be somebody someone could
believe in
But I'm a grapevine valentine
I'm the catch in your throat when you wanna cry
When all I really wanna do is catch you smile

Smile, smile

Out across the lawn
Bare foot on the warm asphalt
In the road we stop the only ones, the only ones
Out across the lawn
Bare foot on the warm asphalt
In the road we touch tar to heels lips to lock

Come on give me something that I can believe in
Got those bedroom eyes in the living room
And we're pulling all the blinds in the afternoon
All I wanted was to be somebody someone could
believe in
But I'm a grapevine valentine
I'm the catch in your throat when you wanna cry
When all I really wanna do is catch you smile

Smile, smile, yeah, smile
