Going out mary jane
I'm looking through your window pain
I heard the word, you're back in town
I've got some cheap cigarettes, your favorite beer,
Girl wear the dress I always dream about
Oh

We'll chase the moon, ride the stars
Find the muscle in this car
I know it's still got something left
Yeah come on out, take my hand
Feel my heart, girl understand
I gotta fight the pounding in my chest

Hey yeah, can't see you it's nothing but mine
Girl tonight, lets go crazy one more time

We'll park the car, climb on the hood
Turn it up, when something good starts
Starts playing through these rusted doors
And in this sticky and sweet hand and I
I'll kiss you girl till I get it right
Cause I know that will lead to more

We devour rolling around
Where I'll gently lay you down
And I'll try to tell you gently how I feel
But you place your finger on my mouth
Whisper "baby, no not now"
The night is young and we still got time to steal

Hey yeah, can't see you it's nothing but mine
Girl tonight, lets go crazy one more time

With the engine burning through my jeans
I watch you fall fast asleep
In this small town sky faith in black and blue
And I'll wipe the tear from my eye
But you'll never know cause baby I'll smile
As I wave goodbye to you

Hey yeah, can't see you it's nothing but mine

Girl tonight, lets go crazy one more time

I guess I'll always have this longing in my heart
And you'll have a place in me
But tonight there's a fire to start
And I'm really burning hard
So you're all that I'll ever need
Yeah
