"Faith When I Fall"

I know it's been a long time
Since the last time we talked.
I know I've been a stranger
And that's all my fault.
And asking you for anything
Don't really seem right.
But the winds of change are blowing
So I'm begging you tonight.
Give me love, when I aint got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when I'm standing, and faith when I fall.

I know the rain is coming
And it's sure gonna pour.
I know there aint no runnin
From this kind of storm
It's gonna get harder and harder
To keep on pushing through.
I'm gonna want to quit
So I'll be countin on you.
Give me love, when I ain't got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when I'm standing, and faith when I
fall.

And when the clouds start parting
And the sun starts shining through.
This time I wont forget,
I wont forget about you.
Give me love, when I aint got nobody.
A little hope, when I aint got none at all.
Give me light, up ahead on the journey.
Give me strength when I'm standing, and faith when I
fall.

Give me strength when I'm standing and faith when I
fall.
