VERSE ONE

When you don't say things
That were meant to be said
We will never know what we'll be missing here
If there's something we can do
To fulfil our want for nothing
And our need to be rescued alive
We have all the light to guide us home
All the time to heal our wounds
We have all the skill to fix what's broken
And All we ever wanted

VERSE TWO

I see you, i see you losing yourself
Falling through, the sound of nothingness
The precious moment is come
Time to refill our emptiness
And ignite our souls again
We have all the light to guide us home
All the time to heal our wounds
We have all the skill to fix what's broken
Nothing else is needed
We have all we ever wanted
Nothing else is needed
All We ever wanted
Nothing else is needed
All We ever wanted
We Have all we ever wanted
