Can drinks make me forget
This day and mend
My broken friendships and help me face my fears
My weaknesses and think
What I could get
If just I had the strength
To take back what belongs to me
Take back what belongs to me
I don't wanna fall, listen to me
What I'm gonna do, I love you
I don't wanna lose you
Baby I want to live with you

I could start again, I could fight again
I could reach to the sky for you
I could start again, I could fight again
I could break the wall for you

The things that you had
Were to appreciate
The important things and dry my tears
My loneliness and think
What I could get
If just I had the strength
To take back what belongs to me
Take back what belongs to me
I don't wanna fall, listen to me
What I'm gonna do, I love you
I don't wanna lose you
Baby I want to live with you

I could start again, I could fight again
I could reach to the sky for you
I could start again, I could fight again
I could break the wall for you

I paid for all my sins
I learned from all my mistakes
And now
I'm making all my own plans
I've the strength to start again

I could start again, I could fight again
I could reach to the sky for you
I could start again, I could fight again
I could break the wall for you
