What I have done
I walk alone,
Some people say
That I should be honest with myself
This seems the way
Now I have to change,
No I cannot accept what people say of me then

I am walking away
I am walking too far from your memory
I am walking away
I write it down to realize your fantasy

I've paid for you
I've fought for you
Please answer me
Do You Ever think of me?
Maybe I've been wrong,
I've cried all night long
I hope it's not too late
I beg you to help me cause

I am walking away
I am walking too far from your memory
I am walking away
I write it down to realize your fantasy
