Cut across the pieces I designed
No they will not align, I won't let them align
Caught a brief reflection of your eyes
Waters they can hide everything inside

I can't let it go, no I won't let it go
For I need you to see, that (2x)

I have given you all, so you must give what you've got (2x)

Emptiness it echoes in my mind
There's nowhere I can hide in noone to confide
Caught a brief reflection of your eyes
Waters they can hide everything inside

I can't let it go, no I won't let it go
For I need you to see, that (2x)

I have given you all, so you must give what you've got (4x)

I have given you all, so you must give what you've got Waters they caught me again
They pulled me under and I've got nothing to, nothing to give

Give what you've got, you've got to give what you've got
