Be still my beating heart
Pounding so violently
Trying to be free from me
It leap right out of my chest
Supposing it knows best
If I just let it go
Cuz a heart wants what it wants and when it wants it
No ifs and no ands or buts about it
No words could possibly stop it now

Like a meteor that's crashing through the atmosphere
It's your gravity alone that always brings me here
Though I'm falling even faster that I wanted to I'm getting closer.... Closer to you

I've got to stop my brain
It's like a runaway train
With all this obsessive thinking
But a mind thinks that it gets it when it wants it
No ifs and no ands or buts about it
No words could possibly stop it now

Like a meteor that's crashing through the
atmosphere
It's your gravity alone that always brings me here
Though I'm falling even faster that I wanted to
I'm getting closer.... Closer to you

Sure as the sun
That lights up the sky that we look upon
I'll be the one
The one thing that you can always count on ooohhhhhhhh

Like a meteor that's crashing through the
atmosphere
Its your gravity alone that always brings me here
Though I'm falling even faster that I wanted to

Like a meteor that's crashing through the

Faster than I want it to
I'm getting closer.... Closer to you

Closer to you

Do do do do do do do do
Do do do do do do do do

Closer to you
