Some of us never see the light
Until it's out of sight
Give up without a fight

Some of us fall and never get up
Swear that it's not their fault
Swear that it's not their fault

Evolution will turn your life around
From feeling safe and sound
To the lost and found

You and me, well, we are the same
I feel your loss, your joy, your pain
Shouldering the blame

'Cuz I've been there
Never again, never again
Will I allow myself to drown

Some of us never take advice
So then we pay the price
With every toss of the dice

Some of us never see the light
Until it's out of sight
Give up without a fight

Evolution will turn your life around
From feeling safe and sound
To the lost and found

You and me, well, we are the same
I feel your loss, your joy, your pain
Shouldering the blame

'Cuz I've been there
Never again, never again
Will I allow myself to drown

'Cuz I wasted too much time
Too many years of my life

Letting others down

I heard it from a friend who
I heard it from a friend who

'Cuz I've been there
Never again, never again
Will I allow myself to drown

'Cuz I wasted too much time
Too many years of my life
Letting others down

'Cuz I've been there
Never again, never again
Will I allow myself to drown

Some of us never see the light
Until it's out of sight
Give up without a fight
