sooner or later you and me will be lost dumb blind and free

sooner or later you and i won't have anywhere to hide sooner or later everone catches up to the things they've done

sooner or later everone will get down as and kick it unwind, cut the ties, open wide and wait sooner or later things you say catch up and they make you pay

sooner or later things you do they hurt only me and

sooner or later everone will get down as we kick it

honey, sorry hey hey la la

sooner or later things you say catch up and they make
