Home alone, it's another lonely night
Call me, she started another fight
Went to see her and he opened the door
She says "All is fair in love and war"
But come on, how much longer are you
Gonna let her tell you what to do
But you can't just say no

Chorus:

Because you're so, so in love
But everything you do is never enough
It doesn't matter what you say
She'll hurt you anyway
But me, I'll always be there
But just keep acting like you don't care
You can't deny it's true but I promise baby
I'll never run away from you

And here we go and go again and I'm hanging out with my friends and
You walk by with a tear in your eye
Let me guess, she did it again
But you, you'll just pretend like it never happened
And you'll run back to her

Chorus:

Because you're so, so in love
But everything you do is never enough
It doesn't matter what you say
She'll hurt you anyway
But me, I'll always be there
But just keep acting like you don't care
You can't deny it's true but I promise baby
I'll never run away from you

Bridge:

Time passes, and I find someone new
The look on my face is so familiar to you
And now you know exactly what you have to do
You say goodbye to her and start to run away
And I'm sitting at home, I'm trying to hide the pain
And the doorbell rings, you're standing in the rain

And you say

You're so, so in love
But everything you do is never enough
It doesn't matter what you say
He'll hurt you anyway
But me, I'll always be there
I'm sorry I acted like I didn't care
But now I know it's true so come on baby
I wanna run away with you

I wanna run away with you
Oh oh
I wanna run away with you
