[Intro] See I don't know what you've been told Sooomebody told meee.. Never trust a man with a smiling face.. Just might be the day of life they take..
(ooOoooooooooooo Oooooooooooooo Ooooooooooooo ooOOOoooo) [Verse One: Kutt Calhoun] This here be a letter from the heart, is anybody listen anymore I dunno what where how when why, no trust anymore Everyone got the same look, hard to decipher what's real My little homie Layne just got tamed but he copped 5 with a deal Does that really mean that he snitchin when he's smile tellin' me that it's official Guess I'm gonna find out in his discovery, if it's game that was spittin' Can't even trust my own girl, I done fucked up too much Keep havin' dreams of her fuckin other niggaz, man it's just my luck My old baby momma got it in for me when she tellin' me shits straight Got a weird feelin' everytime I talk to her now we being taped By some jealous ass bitch nigga thinkin' me and her in cahoots Any given day and the federei speak no words when they shoot This is what I deal with daily, ain't enough kills to lay me Down to sleep I don't even trust a cheap life when you feel this crazy That alone will decay me, lettin' all this realness fade me Please look God, Heaven has a way let me see the real what's phazing?
[Chorus] (repeat x6) What's that smile you wearing What's that smile you weeaarr [Verse Two: Kutt Calhoun] Look at him plan as we speak, looking like the devil with a grin Got it in for a building then can't wait to put it to an end Hope Brock Obama got a plan, everybody waiting on you man To get assassinated cause they all hatin' better be related to the clan Hope you got a vest when it comes, Better yet a section of yard Would be killaz who don't give a fuck sent to protect where you run (from) Look at John Melville's state, think he had a smile when he aimed? Shot and killed life was sealed, hit an old lady in the face The world is full of monsters, you can see it hide behind the grin Watch the movie there's a hidden message cause I think they all devil advocates Even momma wish she on the drugs, different person when you give her hug Everything you say and do is all official when you got the poison in your blood Don't goto church that much, find out the weapons are bold Get the money, get the whip, get the house and get the phills of the 12 year old But they smile all in your face, and then they tell you the Lord is great I just hope they all burn in hell when I bail with a smiling face [Chorus] [Verse Three: Kutt Calhoun] Pac was a "Martin Luther King," died young cause he had a dream To make it nessisary for each and every man and women to make amends Told us all to smile through the madness, couldn't understand what he had then Now I recognise he was prophesized angel in disguise in his passing Don't know what this shit mean, Good and bad through the same thing Till I know I'ma walk around with a Gun before I let the streets take me Stress level at a new high, look around everybody a suspect The man at the liquor store, the women at the mall, ain't nobody worth trustin' Smiles every mother fucken where nigga go everybody ain't happy Where the snakes at show the comment, why the jealous ones was the one to cap me Keep smiling I keep brawling and I feel like ima catch an end soon Before you get me, I'ma get you, don't visit me up in the pen fool Cause you just gana come with a smile, sayin' everything's ok When I know that's all just bullshit I'm never gana see the light of day I'd rather just talk to myself, I swear to god it's better that way Cause I feel ain't nobody real like I'm real, There, now I said it Good day! [Phone Message - but it's really Tech N9ne] You have exceeded your time limit!
