Chorus: my boys gon ride as far as I go,
Music's life that's part of my soul,
Live life fast and then we die slow,
That's all that I know,
People change that's only life so,
Imma change the world when I blow,
Future's bright don't dim them lights, no,
That's all that I know

1 verse: Everybody yelling wake up, nah I'm just tryna
live a dream,
Tryna get this cake up, travel as a teen,
Travel with my team all across the seven seas,
Used to watch tv, now my fans watch me,
Yeah I love my fans,
The main reason why I'm where I am,
Not to forget my friends and fam,
They stuck with me through the thick & thin,
Back when nobody was listening,
Now I'm boutta blow like whistling,
And kids calling me the man
But I've been the man ever since the christening,
They loving me now but I ain't famous yet,
So whenever I come around you know them ladies check,
A few people around my town don't even show respect,
But it's whatever cause when I start to shine
They gon wish they could rewind
But I'm moving forward never stop,
Girls call me boo like my first name's majin,
Power to the people call us Austin,
Lets become Gods instead of gossip,
Before they see we fake,
Say we turned to snakes,
Tryna do what it takes,
Til the world knows our face

Chorus: my boys gon ride as far as I go,
Music's life that's part of my soul,
Live life fast and then we die slow,
That's all that I know,

People change that's only life so,
Imma change the world when I blow,
Future's bright don't dim them lights, no,
That's all that I know

2 verse: when I'm finish with my life I just hope I'm not standing outside
Of heaven,
Instead of finding a flow I should probably just find a reverend,
Instead of trying to blend in with society, got their eye
on me,
The irony is that either way I'll become a legend,
See I'm aiming for the heavens, I'm locked on,
Shouts to
Like a flying German Sheppard I'm on-top dawg,
Making competition disappear, tada,
Jamaican from the birth you can call this boy Rasta,
Bent-nation's always first, give you other rappers
lockjaw
Know that I deliver like a mailman's in my locker
Aint nobody realer keep it fly as helicopters, aha
Dropped Bent Rules, and bent the rules of the game
They questioned me on my age when I left these critcs amazed
Got addicted to every track I continued to send the trains
Guess I infiltrated the game, left your favorite rapper in shame, and

Chorus: my boys gon ride as far as I go,
Music's life that's part of my soul,
Live life fast and then we die slow,
That's all that I know,
People change that's only life so,
Imma change the world when I blow,
Future's bright don't dim them lights, no,
That's all that I know
