Chorus: I just want a moment to smile my pains away
And If they say I'm on the wrong track tell them relax cause God's going to Pave the way,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax,
I want to put my feet up and push my seat back,
I don't worry about these haters as if I need that,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax all day

1 verse: momma said I'm too young to be stressing, got your whole life
Ahead of you,
Investing in the best things in life will make a better
you,
And I know so,
I'mma try to hold those,
Words real close
Since I know I might blow,
Look, fam's most important
Don't ever loose your course in,
Life
Cause every night
You hope to wake up in the morning and you might
But you could also see the white lights
So forget the hype life
And get your life right
Before it's night night,
I'm at the Eiffel height while
Your still in kite flight,
And I'm passed your eyesight,
Only 14 just like your graphites,
I'm that nice, don't say I rap like,
Any of your idols,
I'm trying to change the game I aint the same,
My name is Kyle,
Bent,
Spent day and night trying to get heard,
Taking flight took a while but now I'm flying with birds
But look, I put my heart on every one of these tracks
So forgive me if I just want to relax
And kick my feet up

Chorus: I just want a moment to smile my pains away
And If they say I'm on the wrong track tell them relax
cause God's going to
Pave the way,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax,
I want to put my feet up and push my seat back,
I don't worry about these haters as if I need that,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax all day

2 verse: Mayo on the track so you know it's about to spread like wildfire,

Haters mad cause my future's bright like fireflies,
Know I got to blow so these quotes get vitalized,
Remain to float higher 'til I and Zeus see eye to eye,
In better terms I'm on the rise I'm on the come up, Hope ya'll realize I'm where the story ends, I am the sum up,
This's for all the men who get so trigger happy when the gun up,
If I ever get the stick up Imma be an over-cummer,
This the only summer that I made it this far,
Break a leg every time I spit, where's my honorary discharge,
About to make history, take lift off, see me get me E.T
ish on,
See I've been waiting on my time,
I've been patient for my sign
In mean time I've been perfecting my rhymes,
I put my heart on every one of these tracks
So forgive me if I just want to relax
And kick my feet up

Chorus: I just want a moment to smile my pains away
And If they say I'm on the wrong track tell them relax
cause God's going to
Pave the way,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax,
I want to put my feet up and push my seat back,
I don't worry about these haters as if I need that,
I just want to kick my feet up and relax all day
