Verse 1: I love my squad, do anything for them brodies, I swear
Need me to ride, Oh Lodie(Lordy) I'm there
And when we arrive, opponents need prayers
Like yeah
Bad shorty, long hair, small circle, no squares
And I play that music loud, hope the neighbors don't care
Sonnin' all you queers, son of God is who I fear Put a spear through you rappers, make you meet the man upstairs
Deleting competetion, oppostion can't compare Headin' to a different level, when I spit, it's mission clear
You only worth a buck, we drivin' and hittin' deers Word to Marly and me, built the game up like Bob I spit the hottest degree, leave you sweatin' like dogs Best in my age group, no question at all Ascending like angels, you destined to fall
You put in no work, you get fired from job
I'm breaking a leg, so I might as well crawl Writing this fire, bars burning like tires
She diggin' my flow, I inspire her yo'
I ain't lying, I give her that wood like I'm tiger
I'm Kyle
She know I'm destined to blow
Woah
There ain't no question we out here
Rocking clothes that you know isn't out yet Since I'm rockin' shows, man you know they gon' shout yeah
Every time that I walk up on the stage
All the time, every time that I'm walking women wave
That's just how they behave
Regardless of my age
Just makin' a name
I ain't ballin', I ain't paid
Senior in this rap game, most my shorties be the same Older women love the game, don't mess with shorties in my grade
They know I'm grade A, from my fade to my J's

Ehh
BentNation, we get straight to it
Urinating on the game, we just letting out fluids
All your girls know my name, sorry man I had to do it
I guess I get around, you a cube, rubix Who's, the illest of them all?
Man, it gotta be me, flow dirty like I roll through the sewage
And your girl kinda perty (pretty), my as well roll up through it
Fall in love when I give her this arrow, I guess I'm cupid
I break hearts then I break bread
With my homies, cause they know me since the play pen
Now we rollin' through the valleys of the shadow
But we fear no evil cause we'll never be forsaken Breakin' bills cause I'm ishin' on the rap game
You only break wind
When I came in
They ask me my name, I know it's strange, I don't drink but my name
Bent!
