Intro : Take back your life
Your mind and your soul
They tell us that were free but its all mind control
I said take back your life
your mind and your soul

1 verse : gone out of my mind cause our life and lies are so intertwine
You in a box, im outside
They got in your mind but not into mine Tried warning my peers but I smelled ignorance in the air
These lies getting whispered up in your ear
From beings that dont originate here
We under their control
Ears to toes
Only cause we aint spiritual
Manipulating the generations
Got reptillians in our code
No double helix, theres 12 spirals
This hidden power is in our souls
Magnificent imbecile
But still no rapper is near to Kyle
Why they look at you as a child
Youll gain my knowledge 5 years from now
Crazy truth coming from the youth
You give them loot while they kill the troops
Civil war, world war 2
World war 3, none were true
2012, new beginning but this year im so done with you
Taking a number 2 on these Emcees
Til im empty
Im a God emcee yall demis
So all I see is envy
Yall cant see me ,im in a different D
Mention like I smoked DMT
Boutta blow like TNTs
Just so they know its B.E.N.T, ah

Chorus : (take back your life
Your mind and your soul
They tell us that were free but its all mind control) 2x

(They cant tell us nothing, they aint saying nothing relevant
We aint listening) 2x

verse 2 : American life, full of conspiracy theories, money power
And the celebrity lights
Where we all bombarded by law
Whether its wrong or its right
Where religion is causing division debating on alaa or christ
Why fight bout who is right
Maybe we all should unite
Put our differences behind
Because this human race is one of a kind
Take it one step at a time
Because over time our minds will align
Why arent we heeding the signs
On December 21st, we will survive
The media's feeding us lies
Striking fear into American lives
But the divine will always prevail
And the elite will meet their demise
The battles not yours nor mine
So dont mind the war cries
Things look fine in your eyes
Only at this point of time
Just know through the hardest time thats when we will start to shine
If all this vanity that I see is temporary Whats the point of me stressing over clothes and ps3s
Honest I just want to give the world my knowledge
And stress the fact that none of ya'll flows is seeing me
I used to stress over being labeled as the hottest
But in this cold world I'll forever be on freeze
Respect to hova
But we can be our own God's and Goddesses
If only the whole world would just get up of their knees
I used to be egotistic and pride-affiliated
And a few of those things might just linger in me still
But when I realized theres more to life than being famous
I understood you dont need a record deal
You just need to

Chorus : (take back your life
Your mind and your soul
They tell us that were free but its all mind control) 2x
