chorus : imma take over the game, (and what you gon'
do?)2x

when they all know my name, (oh imma stay true)2x Boston's where its at, (and what you gon' do?)2x put my city on the map , (oh imma stay true)2x

1 verse : from the islands to the city lights, so far from what these critics like, like bad broads every night im spitting raw, bet I hit it right,
nosa, hold up,
I really might,
show ya, these lines be cold as ice, I hold the dice and roll it right, cause your life can change over night, just a catalyst trying to make a difference, paper im stacking it hoping its efficient, claiming you a rapper no no boy listen, your lines aint crack im dope boy spitting, tryna blow up these lines still ticking though, but Im losing time these clocks still ticking bro, aint made it yet but these dimes still kick it though, yippy yay yippy yo I aint even tripping though, talk crap but they dont make a difference, say Im wack but they dont ever listen, all want to make it but never go the distance , momma cant ground me im flying with the pigeons, high expectations, it all takes patience, might come soon for the ish im making, Im that dude for the risk im taking, no balloon but im still inflating , woah

chorus : imma take over the game, (and what you gon'
do?)2x

when they all know my name, (oh imma stay true)2x Boston's where its at, (and what you gon' do?)2x
put my city on the map , (oh imma stay true)2x

2 verse : whats the point of opposition bet im taking the crown , chance of getting recognition bet Im taking it down, without a pot to piss in im still gon be running towns, saying you bout your business? in person you just a clown,

ow,
put in work you unemployed, out the dirt came special diamonds, our hearts are strong we taking roids like Eddie Murph you speaking to lions, no lying, smurk on my face, you aint stand a chance, Kyle Bent and rap go hand in hand, put your hand in ,I aint going to dap you, probably laugh at you, homie we aint that cool, attack you up,
blow up then they back you up, hold up I dont need your love, no what?
you dont mean that much, only 14 and not many rappers who are better , stacking up all this cheddar these haters talk but whatever (we good)8x bridge : (waited all our life now we gotta get the green so every single night we just tryna chase a dream)2x

do?)2x
when they all know my name, (oh imma stay true)2x Boston's where its at, (and what you gon' do?)2x
