Hey! Someone shut that thing down
Something old schoolâ€™s been thumping through the town
Gotcha girl damn warbling on like yeah, yeah, yeah,
yeah, yeah
Guess the rules werenâ€™t apparent enough
I donâ€™t care, yeah yeah
For your voice, man, itâ€™s too damn loud
Such a noise, please shut-uppa your mouth
Thatâ€™s what he said

Well ok, ok, ok, ok itâ€™s me
If you donâ€™t like how I sing, please leave
Always saying I wonâ€™t amount to very much
If baby girl knows whatâ€™s good, sheâ€™ll keep her mouth shut
Promise I wonâ€™t say what the whole world knows
That you should quit, yes I told you so
Thatâ€™s what he said

Nobody knows whatâ€™s in store
I could be so much more
Is enough, is enough
Enough is enough
Take a good look at me
Gon be all I can be
No, never, never, never
Never, never
Thatâ€™s what he said

They donâ€™t wanna sing with me because I like to wail
My epic vocals are one big epic fail
Why dâ€™ya wanna go oh oh and soak up the limelight?
Baby leave the hard stuff to the ones, yeah
The ones who do it right
And weâ€™ll speak nothing more on this phase
Youâ€™re just not good enough to shine on stage
Thatâ€™s what he said

Hey yeah yeah yeah yeah

Excuse me mister
You better understand
Ain't gon be marching any longer to your band
The boy is fruitless, useless
So damn selfish in his pit
Don't â€˜woman' me - you don't be wanting none of this
You can dish it out, but you still can't take it
Shall I spell it out?
Everybody say what she said

Nobody knows what's in store
I could be so much more
Is enough, is enough
Never, never
That's what he said

Ain't gon be naming and shaming
Just know this time what I'm saying
Is take this for what it is
A tale of negatives
What if I was observed
Yes, this warbling girl
Would you befriend me in case
So I'd remember your face?

Nobody knows what's in store
I could be so much more
Is enough, is enough
Enough is enough
Take a good look at me
Never, never
(repeat x1)
