Verse 1

I wonder if we'll ever change our ways
I wonder if we'll make our peace one day
My heart is wired, and I don't wanna cry no more

I've pushed my patience, but I feel it' in vain
One icy look, and my soul gets drained
I find I'm fighting for the day you'll be proud I'm yours
Well no more

Chorus

I beg you father please
Not here to stir pain
I know we're hurting
Gotta face what we've made

Oh father please
I'm willing to try
We gotta see who we are
To reverse these lies

Verse 2

All I remember is my faith in your fist
Then you blame me cause I made you like this
I grew up thinking this is the best of love

Your words they shaped me, and I had to breakthrough
To find inside this man I never knew
I'm tired of shamin', and I know that I've had enough

Chorus

Bridge

I'm not placing all of this on you
I know there's sufferin inside you too
Let's take a step from where we stand
I call truce, white flag in my hand

Chorus

I beg you father please
Not here to stir pain
I know we're hurting

Gotta face what we've made

Oh father please
I'm willing to try
We gotta see who we are
Lets reverse these lies

We need to heal this burden of steel
Oh father please
No pushing away
Let's be men like you claim
And own our mistakes

Let's own our mistakes
Let's own our mistakes
Let's own our mistakes

I beg you father please
I beg you father please
