I. When my time is over, I'll fly away
To the place where my loved ones are there
In that land there's no parting
No tears, no sorrow
We shall live forever and ever.

Neath the tree of life happily we walk
And we sing never ending song of praise
In the light of the Lord everyone is lovely
No other is beautiful than that.

2. Beyond up in the sky a House is for us
My Jesus made it for you and me
In our Heavenly Home
No one is unhappy
Song of praise is sung forever.
