Well you know my game
Dirty like my name
And you're an angel
You're perfection in every way
Say I'm a bad man
The one that make you so sad
I'm the first one to agree
I'm getting out of hand
But I want you to know
That no matter how this goes
You're the only thing
Really you're my only thing

Every time I come home late
Every time I made you wait
Every time you lie awake
And you swore my name
For my bad mistake
Every time I lie to you
I wish I would'a told the truth

For all of those time
I apologize to you
To you

I come from the hard life
I want to make it out right
You're the one that turns my darkness into light
When I string you along
You always were so strong
You opened up my eyes
I used to be so blind
But I want you to know
That no matter how this goes
Are you listening?
Tell me are you listening?

Every time I come home late
Every time I come home late
Every time I made you wait
Every time you lie awake
And you swore my name

For my bad mistake
Every time I lie to you
I wish I would'a told the truth

For all of those time I apologize to you
To you

Every time I kiss your lips it drives me crazy
Beautiful, beautiful yeahhh

Every time I come home late
Every time I made you wait
And you swore my name
For my bad mistake
Every time I lie to you
I wish I would'a told the truth

For all of those time I apologize to you
To you
