I know I messed this up
It's pretty bad this time
So bad you packed your things
Inside your parents car and said goodbye
Has it really come to this?
How can you stay mad?
You said it's time you need
We both know what that really means

I'm trying to figure out
What i'm meant to do about this Cuz I don't know how it's not Just a simple remedy, yeah
It's never that easy for me, no~
So take a walk with me for a minute
While I try and understand
All the reasons you do it
I need a revelation, yeah
A revelation!

We go, we go down these roads, we go
And all we can ever hope for
A revelation
And I don't know now what I need from this
I need a revelation

~~ ~~~

Oh, I know there must be a reason
I can tell you made your mind up
And there's no going back
No nothing's gonna change that
You kiss me goodnight with the same lips you kiss me good-bye with
The same lips that you spun all your life with
There's no going back
No, nothing's gonna change that.

We go, we go down these roads, we go
And all we can ever hope for
A revelation
And I don't know now what I need from this

I need a revelation

~~ ~~~

I'm tired, so tired

Lets not do this no more(lets not do this no more)

We both know we're pretending

Lets not do this no more(lets not do this no more)

(lets not do this no more)

We go, we go down these roads, we go

I need a revelation

We go, we go down these roads, we go

And and all we can ever hope for

A revelation

And I don't know now what I need from this

I need a revelation

I need a revelation
