See I never knew that you would have me feeling like this, oh

One night, one touch, one kiss,
It was all it took to get me feeling like this Cause you got to know, like I know that when we're together
It goes a little something like this Butterflies, weak in the knees Baby don't go, I'm begging you please Tonight I'm gonna cater to you I'm calling your phone, every 6 seconds, calling your job and leaving you messages, and I hope it gets through

You're giving me the heat stroke, and I can't take it babe
It feels like the middle of June You're giving me a heat stroke,
and I can't fight it babe, I'm falling in love with you (Repeat again)

We don't need no ice at all, jump in the bed, I'm taking them off, tonight I'm gonna give it to you (yeah) 34, 26, boy you never seen nothing like this Imagine when I put it on you You'll be saying (ooh, ahh) Throwing the sheets and covers I'm screamin' its (too hot)
Maybe we should let it cool down Cause, when we fool around Things get outta control, and It only leads to me having a heat stroke

You're giving me the heat stroke, and I can't take it
It feels like the middle of June
You're giving me a heat stroke,
and I can't fight it babe, I'm falling in love with you (Repeat again)

Take me to the limit baby
Please don't stop Cause my body is calling for you
And it's making me hot
So ha ha ha ha ha hot
So ha ha ha ha ha hot
(Repeat again)

You're giving me the heat stroke, and I can't take it
It feels like the middle of June
You're giving me a heat stroke,
and I can't fight it babe, I'm falling in love with you (Repeat until end of song)
