Verse One:

I sit and ask myself,
Is it really worth it?
Are you trying to keep playing with my mind?
I don't know why I keep dealing with it,
'Cos boy your love is wicked,
And I'm so tired of those same old lies.

Chorus:

You told me that you love me,
You told me that you care.
Said you'd always be my baby,
How could you be so unfair?
Promised never to leave me lonely,
Promised never to leave my side.
Boy you turned your back on me,
The promises were nothing but lies.

Verse Two:

I cant explain the way I feel,
About this love, you left me all alone,
Boy where did we go wrong?
Cos all the promises that you made,
Were all just broken,
How could you leave me standing there?

Repeat Chorus
