Never knew I would be here sitting waiting for you to come Didn't know that you'd be the one that go and break my heart
After all the fuss and fighting I just wanna get everything right back again Cause I need you to come fix this Listen, didn't mean it when I said what I said to hurt you babe
Sometimes we gotta go two ways, that's right, babe
One thing you gotta know I don't wanna let you go Cause you mean everything to me, yeah
Oh, oh, my heart is crying out Oh, oh, I'm breaking down inside Tell me why do we do these things to each other
When we know we need each other to make it through

What is this? What is this? What is this?

It's making me feel this way
What is this? What is this, yeah?
What is this, oh?
It's making me feel this way
What is this? It's got me caught up and so confused
What is this? The , crying and missing you
What is this? Can you tell me yeah?
It's making me feel this way
What is this? It got me doing things I've never do What is this? It's got me loosing it over you What is this? This got me loosing it over you

So many times I look at your pictures And I cried sometimes cause that's how much I miss you
But deep in my heart, I'm feeling the same thing, baby come let me ease the pain
I'm here for you,
I'm here all alone, wishing that you would come back home Tell me why we're doing this to each other we know we need each other

What is this? It's got me caught up and so confused
What is this? The , crying and missing you
What is this? Can you tell me yeah?
It's making me feel this way
What is this? It got me doing things I've never do
What is this? It's got me loosing it over you What is this? This must be love.
