(Verse)

Tell me another story with a happy ending.
Caught my feet so eery and my heart need mending.

(Pre-Chorus)

Is it true and all this could be it?
IÂ'm not ready for this to be ended.

(Chorus)

I donÂ't know what the weather will be,
Whether weÂ'll see on tomorrow.
But if today is all I have to believe, I give to you,
Do what you want to.

(Verse)

Tell me another story with a brand new meaning.
Cut my heart so wheery and my head need healing.

(Pre-Chorus)

Is it true and all this could be it?
IÂ'm not ready for this to be ended.

(Chorus)

I donÂ't know what the weather will be,
Whether weÂ'll see on tomorrow.
But if today is all I have to believe, I give to you,
Do what you want to.
I donÂ't know what the weather will be,
Whether weÂ'll see on tomorrow.
But if today is all I have to believe, I give to you,
Do what you want to
