Oooh

The calendar says 11-11-11
It's been a year and a month and a day
Since the October you flew away
From me

And I know
I could've kept you around
But I couldn't hold you down
Instead, I watched you rise

[Chorus]
In these November skies, skies (x2)
And now the calendar makes me cry
No longer butterflies and those summer nights
Do you remember?
The moment we said goodbye,
I tried to turn back time
And rewind to these November skies, skies
Do you remember those nights
before we said goodbye to these November skies?

The calendar says 11-11-11
Another year and a month and a day
Baby, your memory will fade, away.

And I hope, winter will keep you warm
It's giving will make you pause
For a moment to think of me

[Chorus]
In these November skies, skies (x2)
And now the calendar makes me cry
No longer butterflies and those summer nights
Do you remember?
The moment we said goodbye,
I tried to turn back time
And rewind to these November skies, skies
Do you remember those nights
before we said goodbye to these November skies?

[Bridge]

I let you fly and you were s'posed to come back to me, back to me

We said goodbye but you were never supposed to leave

11-11-11, please come back to me, ohhh.

Please come back

[Chorus]

And now the calendar makes me cry

No longer butterflies and those summer nights

Do you remember?

The moment we said goodbye,

I tried to turn back time

And rewind to these November skies, skies

Do you remember those nights

before we said goodbye to these November skies?

Do you remember those nights before we said goodbye?
